

I am very strongly AGAINST removing the ban on Cross-Ownership. The Cross-Ownership ban is the last shred of regulation keeping our media from being completely dominated by giant corporations. It is a lie to say that having fewer companies/institutions controlling the media means we the "consumers" will have more choices.

Please, discontinue plans for removing the ban on Cross-Ownership and increase regulation of media corporations to insure that we have fairness and accuracy in reporting.

Sincerely,

Daniel Moore